The effects of the devastating 1918-1919 "Spanish flu" pandemic were worsened by lack of medical knowledge and by war's impact on the health of younger, previously healthy individuals in cities, towns and rural communities across Alberta and around the world. What do the archives teach us about health issues and how do we teach young people about the frightening parts of history?

Followed by EDHS Annual General Meeting

MAY 2019
Saturday, May 25th
Historical Society of Alberta
AGM & Awards Luncheon
Watch for details in upcoming History Now or visit www.albertahistory.org

EDMONTON HISTORIC FESTIVAL AND DOORS OPEN
July 1 - 7, 2019
The EDHS Historic Festival and Doors Open continues to experience phenomenal success in Edmonton and surrounding communities. Watch for the 2019 festival brochure in late May or early June. Updates are provided on the Historic Festival website: www.historicedmonton.ca
OR you can contact the festival coordinator, Sue Lacombe, by telephone at 780-439-2797 or by e-mail at events@historicedmonton.ca after January 2.
