The Edmonton and District Historical Society Presents
The 27th Annual Historic Festival and Doors Open
July 2-9, 2023

For 27 years, the Edmonton and District Historical Society (EDHS) has proudly presented the annual Historic Festival & Doors Open Edmonton. Community arts and heritage organizations, historic places and corporate partners from around the Edmonton region offer unique tours or events over the course of the week-long festival. EDHS coordinators will include your event information in the robust festival marketing campaign that includes television and print ads, social media blasts, webpage link to your event and distribution of 10,000 festival guidebooks. There is no cost to register!

Festival Theme

Prohibition was the result of generations of effort by temperance workers to close bars and taverns.

They were seen as a source of unhappiness in an age before social welfare existed.

Temperance activists and their allies believed that alcohol, especially hard liquor, was an obstacle to economic success, to social cohesion, and to moral and religious purity.

By 1923, Alberta voters were done with being dry. A petition led to a plebiscite, where a majority voted in favour of allowing liquor sales through the government, which came into effect in 1924.

Today, Alberta has at least 47 licensed distillers, 133 breweries and at least 10 wineries and meaderies with most selling directly to the consumer or in collaboration with local restaurants.

This year’s festival theme is Prohibition

In order to secure future funding and continue to grow the festival, it is imperative that we receive the answers to the following questions no later than July 14, 2023
